NYC DATE NIGHT: PLANNED

Enjoy a dazzling night out in NYC without the logistics

Tucked just off Fifth Avenue, The Benjamin Royal Sonesta offers a refined Midtown stay that feels like an indulgent and ideal home base for a New York night out. Its Moulin Rouge experience leans into the joy of the city without demanding weeks of coordinating, making it an easy choice for a memorable date night.

Start your evening by checking in to the luxurious Beverly Penthouse, complete with breathtaking skyline views and lavish comforts.

From there, the fun unfolds: private chauffeured transportation delivers you to Broadway's dazzling Moulin Rouge! The Musical with orchestra-level seats and VIP lounge access at the Al Hirschfeld Theatre. A pre-show, private cocktail meet-and-greet with cast members adds an exciting, behind-the-scenes touch.

After the final encore, return to the calm elegance of The Benjamin to unwind. With every detail handled seamlessly, the experience allows you to step into a night out in New York without the usual logistics—no reservations to juggle, no timelines to manage—just the rare pleasure of showing up, settling in, and fully enjoying the evening as it unfolds.

The Benjamin Royal Sonesta

Steeped in Midtown Manhattan history, The Benjamin stands as a beacon of classic New York City elegance. Built in the 1920s, this landmark reflects the early evolution of New York skyscraper style and was officially designated a New York City landmark in 2017 for its cultural and architectural significance. The Benjamin has since been thoughtfully restored to honor its storied past while embracing modern comfort and design. Today, the hotel offers luxurious rooms with a welcoming sense of place that feels more like a refined home away from home. Guests can further unwind at the Royal Reflection Wellness Spa, where restorative treatments provide a serene counterbalance to the city's pace. Anchoring the experience is The Parliament, the hotel's modern American restaurant, blending polished service with a distinctly New York energy.
